FORMER SHOPMEN HERE

ARRESTED IN KANSAS CITY ON THE SERIOUS CHARGE OF COUNTERFEITING.

THE TOOLS WERE FOUND IN THEIR ROOM

One of the Accused Was Not Captured Until After a Long Chase—Deny Being Engaged in Making of Bogus Money.

John F. Burns and Charles Adams, former employes of the Missouri Pacific shops here, were arrested in Kansas City Saturday and are being held to answer the charge of counterfeiting.

Burns gave his home as Westfield, Mass., and Adams said he lived in Syracuse, N. Y. It has not been found that either of the men attempted to pass the "queer" money.

The men were found in the back room of a house at 1732 Oak street. They claim they were merely trying to make a medallion.

At the first intimation of danger, Burns, who was engaged in preparing the molds, made a dash for the door, ran to the stairs and jumped to the floor below.

Detective Walsh followed him, but by a mistep, lost his footing and fell from the top step to the bottom, injuring his leg. Burns was captured after a long chase. Adams was taken without trouble.

In the room was found two plaster molds, one with the impression of a silver "quarter" and the other a "half dollar," together with eight counterfeit half dollars. The coins were fair imitations, but lacked weight and "ringing" qualities. The edges of the coins were still in the rough, just as they were taken out of the moulds.

Files, chisels and odd-shaped knives, together with a scale, were found among the paraphernalia confiscated. The scale was a crude affair, made with copper wire and the tops of two tin cans. The can tops served as trays, the whole dependent from a nail driven into an upright stick of wood and fastened to a pedestal.

According to Burns and Adams, the scale was used to weigh the ingredients for the alloy.

"We got our ideas from books in the library," said Burns. "In passing a jewelry store on Main street about three weeks ago we saw a medallion of Kansas City displayed in a window. The price was $1.75, and we got an idea that if we could reproduce that medallion for 30 or 40 cents we could make money by the sale of them.

"Not wishing to go to the expense of having a die made, we used the coins, as the book from which we got our information stated that coins could be used for experimenting purposes. We conducted our experiments openly and made no effort to conceal our actions. Mrs. Nellie Evett, the landlady at 1732 Oak street, saw the tools and the moulds in the room. Our door was never locked and anyone who wanted to could come in at any time."

Mrs. Evett said she did not know in what work the men were engaged. She declared that she had not been in their room but once or twice since they took it about six weeks ago. She said, further, that Burns and Adams had paid her but one week's rent since they came.

"I knew they were out of work," said she, "and I felt sorry for them. They seemed to be gentlemanly, good boys, and I know they tried to find something to do to earn an honest living."

Captain Flahive called Burns into his private office Saturday afternoon while Mrs. Evett was present. At the end of the interview Burns took an affectionate leave of his former landlady, pressing her hand and kissing her. Following this, Mrs. Evett was subjected to a rigid cross-examination, but convinced of her innocence and ignorance of details regarding the work carried on in her rooms, Captain Flahive allowed her to go.

FUNERAL WAS POSTPONED

Parents of Deceased Cannot Get Here Until Tonight.

The funeral of Hallah H. Martin, a former Missouri Pacific brakeman, who was suddenly killed at Lee's Summit Saturday morning, was postponed from today until tomorrow, owing to the failure of deceased's parents to arrive from Childress, Texas, it being impossible for them to get here until tonight.

The body is now lying in state at deceased's home in the annex of Le Grande hotel, and will be taken to Syracuse at 10:40 o'clock tomorrow morning, where funeral services and burial will be held.

He "Worked" Our Postmaster.

C. W. Hale, the smooth individual who succeeded in having Postmaster Codding and M. L. Imhoff endorse separate checks on a Carrollton, Mo., bank, when he had no funds in it, was fined $50 by Circuit Judge Hoffman today. The costs were dropped, provided Hale pays the fine by next Monday.

$1600 EASTER OFFERING

GAVE $2001 TO ST. LOUIS ORPHANS' HOME

This Was Done by the Sunday School—The Church Raised $1,600 in Cash and Pledges—Seven Additions to Membership

Yesterday was a great day at the First Christian church, of which the Rev. A. W. Kokendoffer is pastor. The Bible school, under the efficient leadership of W. W. Herold and his assistants, passed the 400 mark. The orchestra, directed by Mr. Pritchard, was at its best. Mr. Harold Hoffman sang an Easter hymn at this service. The offering by classes, to be sent to the orphans' home at St. Louis was $200. This was the best offering in the history of this school.

The regular church services were morning and afternoon. Mrs. Quisenberry had charge of the music and Prof. Farris was at the organ.

The afternoon musical program was elaborate and especially fine. At the morning service there were seven additions to the church, five of these by confession of faith.

The special item of the morning service was the raising of about $1,600 in cash and pledges to meet street paving, a little deficit in current expenses and for missions.

These included state, home, foreign and the work of the women under the C. W. B. M. and Young Ladies' circle.

The church is to be congratulated upon its successful work and for the very joyous worship, in attendance, song and liberality for the Easter service.

FORTY YEARS IN THE "PEN"

A. H. Ray Sentenced for the Killing of "Bunch" O'Neill.

Alvin H. Ray, aged 32, pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree when arraigned before Judge Louis Hoffman in criminal court today, and was sentenced to forty years in the state penitentiary.

Ray, who occupied a chair in the row of seats directly in front of the court desk, never moved a muscle or winked an eye when Judge Hoffman, evidently moved by the imposition of such a sentence, sternly called to the court clerk, "I'll fix the punishment at forty years, and let the sentence be accordingly."

Attorney W. G. Lynch, who represented Ray, previously withdrew the prisoner's plea of not guilty to murder in the first degree, and after the punishment had been fixed interceded with the judge to lessen the sentence to thirty years in the penitentiary, stating that thereby hope might be entertained for executive clemency later.

"The crime was a most inexcusable one," Judge Hoffman remarked, as he refused to lessen the punishment, and bearing handcuffs and guarded by Deputy Sheriffs Card and Menefee, the prisoner was returned to the county jail.

Ray shot John W. O'Neill in the bar room of the Stag saloon Thursday night, December 17. Three days later O'Neill died.

Easter Offering Was $403.

There was a splendid attendance at the Easter service at Calvary Episcopal church, of which the Rev. Douglass Atwill is the popular rector, and the annual offering was a little the rise of $406.

JACK AND THE BEANSTALK

NOT TO LEAVE SEDALIA

NO TRUTH IN THE RUMOR THAT REV. FR NEIBERG IS TO BE A MISSIONARY.

REMAIN AS PASTOR OF SACRED HEART

Has a Fine Church and Congregation Here, He Says, and His Only Desire Is to Be a Successful Parish Priest.

Rumor, and persistent rumor, has been in the saddle and pushing things, as it were, for several days, to the effect that the Rev. S. Neiberg is soon to retire as pastor of Sacred Heart church to become a missionary in the order of the C. PP. S.

That Fr. Neiberg could have the honor did he so desire, no one who knows him intimately and hears him preach Sabbath after Sabbath has the least doubt.

When Fr. Penedict, of St. Joseph, and Fr. Neiberg were called to St. Boniface church, Brooklyn, N. Y., a month ago, to conduct a three weeks' mission, the "wise ones" were confident that it was the beginning of the end of Fr. Neiberg's pastorate here, and deep regret was expressed throughout the parish at the bare thought of losing their beloved pastor, despite the fact that his two efficient and popular assistants, the Rev. Fr. Christian Daniel and the Rev. Fr. Rudolph Stoltz, would remain.

A Democrat-Sentinel reporter talked with Fr. Neiberg Sunday and obtained from him a positive denial of the report that he will soon leave Sacred Heart church.

"Why," said the reverend father, with a laugh and a twinkle of the eye, "they (meaning his parishioners) will have to take some other method of getting rid of me, for I like Sedalia and her people so well that I expect to remain and labor here for the remainder of my days.

"Our mission in Brooklyn was a little out of the ordinary parish work, and in consequence a change and a recreation, despite the hard work connected with it.

"Deep interest was taken in the meetings, and Fr. Benedict and I were importuned to return the latter part of the month and conduct missions in churches in Brooklyn and New York city covering a period of seven weeks, but I will have to decline the invitation.

"Our order, the 'C. PP. S.,' has no church in New York state, but our priests have done much mission work there, even more than in Missouri, where we have a number of churches, and I would like to return for the seven weeks up to June 1, but it will not be possible for me to do so.

"'Do I like mission work?' As a change, yes; for a regular diet, no. My desire in life is to be a successful parish priest. If I can be that I will be satisfied. I have a fine church and congregation here, have many friends among non-Catholics, and you can say for me to my friends that I shall remain as pastor of Sacerd Heart church as long as my health permits or until the provincial of my order commands me to go to another field."

Fr. Neiberg is in splendid health, his trip east evidently having agreed with him. He preached to a crowded house at the 10:30 o'clock Easter service, and his sermon was without question one of the very best of the many excellent discourses he has delivered during his pastorate here.

IMPRISONED IN A CLOSET

THREE LITTLE GIRLS LOCKED UP TWENTY HOURS IN A VACANT HOUSE.

DOOR WITH A SPRING LOCK BLEW CLOSED

Plight of Children Was Discovered Accidentally by Two Women Who Were Passing House Where Confined.

Bay City, Mich., April 12.—Saturday afternoon three little girls, for whom search had bene going on since late Friday afternoon, were found in the closet of a nearby vacant house, where they had been for twenty hours. They had gone there to play, and the door, which had a spring lock, blew closed, making them prisoners.

The children's plight was discovered accidentally by two women who were passing the house. They heard a dog barking in one of the rooms and entered the house to release the animal. When they opened the door they were startled to hear a faint cry for help from the closet. They investigated, and the mystery surrounding the children's disappearance Friday afternoon was solved.

Although cold, hungry and frightened from their twenty hours' imprisonment in the dark and lonely place, none of the children was any the worse physically for the experience.

BAPTISTS HAD A BIG DAY

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL REACHED A TOTAL OF 294 PUPILS YESTERDAY.

CHURCH WAS BEAUTIFULLY DECORATED

A Well-Filled Purse Is Given Rev. Campbell and Granted Vacation to Attend Convention at Louisville.

Yesterday was a great day at the First Baptist church. The Sunday school was at the 294 mark, and two large audiences were in the preaching services. The Sunday school chorus, led by Mrs. Campbell, and the church chorus, led by Miss Lamy, sang several special songs, fitting to the day.

Mrs. Derthick, of Chicago, sang solos in both church services, to the delight of all. The church, too, was beautifully decorated, which added splendor to the occasion.

In the morning service Judge Hoffman sprang a surprise on Pastor Campbell by informing him that the church had a purse for him for the purpose of attending the Southern Baptist convention, which meets in Louisville, Ky., next month, and moved a vacation to him for that time, which was carried unanimously.

The Sunday school also remembered Mrs. Campbell by presenting her with a boquet of beautiful roses, a like greeting being extended to Miss Lamy by the church choir.

In the evening Evangelist Thomas delivered the sermon, and immediately after a solo by Mrs. Derthick, "Tell Me the Old, Old Story," an invitation was given to interested souls, four responding. Then an after meeting of power was held.

During the day five united with the church, two by experience and baptism, there being also a conversion of two.

The pastor announced that an evangelistic service will be held next Wednesday evening, at which time Mrs. Derthick will sing again.

BROUGHT HERE FOR BURIAL

The Remains of A. J. Jerrell, Who Died at St. Joseph, Mo.

A. J. Jerrell, a former Pettis county man, at which time he was engaged in farming north of Sedalia, died from general debility at the home of his daughter at St. Joseph, Mo., Sunday mornng, aged 69 years. He leaves three sons and a daughter, among them being I. S. and T. S. Jerrell, of this city.

The body will be brought here at 4:25 o'clock this afternoon. Funeral services will be held at Mt. Herman, Mo., at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, and burial will be made nearby.

Protesting Against an Airdome.

The Methodists of Springfield are protesting against the erection of an airdome theater by George F. Olendorf on a site selected by him in close proximity to their church, and the indications are that a new location will be chosen. The popularity of the airdome is waning. No person wants it in his immediate neighborhood.

CHANGES ARE NOT MANY SENATE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE DISSECTED THE PAYNE TARIFF BILL.

MORE LOWERING THAN RAISING RATES

Considerable Number of Articles That Are in Common Use Restored to Free List—Agriculture Schedule Remains the Same.

Washington, April 12.—The senate committee on finance, with all members present, met this afternoon and Chairman Aldrich presented the tariff bill as amended by a majority of the committee.

Senator Aldrich gave a brief summary of the bill. In the main the rates as reported from the senate committee were lower than those in the bill as it passed the house, the actual number of reductions being about three times the number of increases.

Such increases as have been made have been largely rendered necessary to preserve the symmetry of the schedules. A considerable number of articles in common use have been taken from the dutiable list of the house bill and restored to the free list, and the great mass of rates reported are below those of the existing law.

It has retained the house rate on lead ore of 1½ cents per pound, but it has been obliged to raise rates on lead products throughout the bill to correspond with this duty on lead ore.

The changes from the house bill in the main are of minor importance. The agricultural schedule, including meat products, remains practically unchanged from the existing law. The committee has not yet decided what rates to recommend on wood pulp, coal and hides.

When the committee met today the democratic members offered no objection to reporting the bill.

Gloves and hosiery are restored to the rates of the present existing law.

House Corrects Its Error.

Washington, April 12.—When the house met today Chairman Payne offered a resolution providing for the return of the tariff bill to the house in order that it might be amended so as to make it plain that crude petroleum and its products should appear on the free list.

After the bill passed Friday an inspection disclosed the fact that the products of petroleum were omitted from the free list, although such was not the intention of the house.

THEY WILL WED ON APRIL 21

Mr. William Franken and Mrs. Hermina Imhauser by Fr. Neiberg.

Mr. William Franken, the proprietor of the Queen City Shoe Repairing Co., and Mrs. Hermina Imhauser, widow of Leo Imhauser, will be married on the 21st inst at Sacred Heart church.

Father Neiberg, C. PP. S., will chant the nuptial high mass and perform the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. William Franken will then make their home on the corner of Pettis and Moniteau streets.

Was Fined $100 for Theft.

George Hilligos, a carpenter, was fined $100 for stealing tools from the Missouri Pacific bridge and building department by Police Judge H. M. Gresham today.

He was given a stay of the fine on his promise to leave town. Paul Miller, the ex-street car motorman, was fined $5 for drunkenness.

TOTAL FOR TWELVE MONTHS WAS 23,295

Of These, 10,480 Were Males and 12,815 Females—Of This Number 72.4 Per Cent Were Passengers to United States.

Dublin, April 12.—During 1908 the total number of emigrants who left Ireland was 23,295, which was the lowest in any year yet recorded.

On the basis of population, the native emigration represented a rate of 5.3 per 1,000, the lowest rate recorded in previous years being 7 per 1,000 in 1905, while that for 1907 was 8.9.

One striking fact comes out in the official statistics, and that is that the total emigration of the Irish people between May 1, 1851, when the enumeration was commenced down to December 31, 1980, almost equals the present population of the country.

The emigrants during the fifty-seven years numbered 4,126,310, while the estimated population at the middle of 1908 was 4,371,436.

Of last year's departing natives 10,480 were males and 12,815 females, of whom 37.5 per cent went to foreign countries or the colonies (including 72.4 per cent, to the United states), for Great Britain.

More than half of the male emigrants of fifteen years of age and upwards (53.7 per cent) were described as "laborers," and 67 per cent of the women emigrants as "servants."

THE CITY GOT $150 TODAY

Grew Out of the Rental of Liberty Park to "Dick" Dolph.

The suit on account of the City of Sedalia against R. C. Dolph, a former Sedalian, for $165 for rental of the Liberty park hall, has been adjusted by the payment of $150, a check for which amount was handed to City Attorney Blain today by C. H. Raiffeisen.

During the administration of City Attorney McGruder suit was instituted by the city in Judge Rickman's court for $165 against R. C. Dolph for rental of the hall at Liberty park.

Mr. Dolph started to leave Sedalia soon after, and his goods were attached. Later they were released on a re-delivery bond, signed by C. H. Raiffeisen.

Dolph was granted a change of venue to Smithton, where judgment was secured against him. No execution of the judgment was ever made until recently, when notice was served on Mr. Raiffeisen, who signed the bond for the release of Dolph's goods, that he would have to pay the amount.

Today Mr. Raiffeisen handed to the city a check for $150, which compromise had been made. In addition, he paid $66.05 costs accruing from the suit, making a total of $216.05.

A COLLECTION OF $684.38

Easter Offering at the First Congregational Church.

A large music loving congregation gathered at the First Congregational church last evening to take part in the praise service which had been announced The program was unusually fine, and many were the expressions appreciating the musical part of the service.

Toward the close the pastor, Rev. Harold Cooper, announced that the Easter offering amounted to $684, of which $174 came from the Sunday school. The trustees of the church had asked for over $600 and many were pessimistic until the result was announced last evening. The Doxology was sung very heartily when the announcement was made.

The choir was agreeably surprised to find that the church had been made brighter by new electric light fixtures. These had been placed by a class of the Sunday school of which Mr. C. West is the teacher. A happy [illegible] was closed with the singing of "Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," and the membership was greatly encouraged by the result.

LOOKING BACK A CENTURY OR MORE.

Under authority of congress there will soon be published a volume entitled "The First Census of the United States, 1790," which, because of the regular decennial census, is of especial interest. This compilation is gotten out to meet a general demand for data relating to early conditions in the country.

In reality it goes back further than the title indicates, containing in addition to the results of the first federal census, many facts concerning colonial days. Another feature is comparative information dealing with the last national census, that of 1900.

The first count of the colonies in a decennial year, the book will show, was in 1610, and credited Virginia with "a population of 200 souls maintaining a precarious foothold upon an unexplored continent."

In the first half of the seventeenth more than half of the inhabitants of the country were in the New England colonies and most of the remainder in Virginia. After 1650, however, the proportion of New England steadily declined and the proportion of the southern colonies as steadily increased. In less than 200 years, or by the census of 1790, the population of the then United States was 3,000,000, occupying more than 800,000 square miles of territory.

Some of the curious things to be found in the volume will be the changed relation of city to rural population and the shifting of the population centers. From 1630 up to the middle of the eighteenth century Boston was the most populous city in the American colonies. New York then took the lead and has since maintained it. Philadelphia soon became the second city and Boston took third place, which order was maintained until the metropolis of the west, Chicago, forged to the front within recent times and displaced the Quaker City.

In 1700 the aggregate population of New York, Philadelphia and Boston was 15,500; in 1790 it was 95,000 and in 1900 it was 5,291,000. The population of Greater New York is today estimated at over 4,222,000. The total population of the United States has increased nineteen fold since 1790. The cities have advanced far more rapidly than the rural districts, their gain being fifty-five fold.

The first census showed practically all of the cities located in the east, Rhode Island, the smallest of the states, having more cities of 8,000 population and over than any other commonwealth. Since then the tide has gone steadily westward and most the populous and growing cities located in that section of the ntry.

One of the interesting things shown is the change in the ratio of native to foreign born stock, British being 90 per cent of the whole in 1790. Another is the difference in the size of the families, which was 5.8 persons in 1790 and in 1900 was 4.6 persons, which may be held to justify the apprehension of the recent president of the United States that the national tendency was in the direction of race suicide.

In all probability, however, the next hundred years will show no decrease in the size of the family, or if it does it will be negligible, for the nation is not going to stop bearing children.

"SWAPPING" NEW TARIFF BILL INTO SHAPE.

Indications are that the Payne bill is to be revised upwards. It is apparent that the measure which has been passed by the house will not get through the senate in anything like its original form. This measure, it may be safely assumed, represents the minimum of duties, below which the tariff will not be allowed to go. The changes that will be made will raise the average and where articles were tentatively placed on the free list they will in some instances be put back in the protected column. The revision of the Payne bill upwards is to be accomplished by a general "swapping" of interests.

Before the bill gets through the senate in its altered form this trading will have become general and when the measure is returned to the house this contagion will have laid a fresh hold upon the members of that body. Barley, steel, wool, coal and oil schedules offer excellent opportunities for bargaining material, and before each interest is reasonably well satisfied and gets near to what it wants it will be found that the bill has undergone radical change.

Fortunately for the special concession-seekers, they are well distributed so that the representatives of one may hold a club over another in order to obtain succor. If they were isolated geographically or politically it would be an easy matter for the country to handle them, and there is no question that in such an event we should have a lower tariff all along the line and a much greater prevalence of free schedules.

The British navy's first ironclad named Dreadnought was built over thirty years ago, and last month she was sold at auction for "scrap" to junk dealers. The main point of interest in comparing the old Dreadnought with the new battleship of the same name is the cost of the two. The old one was built for less than $3,000,000, while the new one ate up nearly $10,000,000 in first cost price.

The expiring Pennsylvania legislature has had an attack of economy and killed a judges' bill which added nearly $400,000 to the public pay roll. The state is not niggardly, either, in the respect or money it pays to the courts and the judges, but a policy of retrenchment in public expenditures can not begin with salary-lifting, even in the case of the judiciary.

With its passage by the house the new tariff law is about one-eighth drawn. The senate will now proceed to add something about like six-eighths and then the measure goes to conference the finishing eighth will be rubbed in.

The level-headed Cleveland Plain-Dealer calls attention to this fact: It is conceded that President Eliot is rich in everything that goes toward making an ambassador save wealth.

President Taft has appointed John S. Wise assistant attorney general for Southern New York. His father hanged John Brown. Truly, the bloody chasm is closed.

The young woman who "lifted" $4,000 from her husband while on their bridal trip may very properly be regarded as a taking bride.

Anyhow, there are millions and millions of people who are indifferent as to whether there is an inheritance or an income tax.

Tariff has made some statesmen. It has unmade some, and there is now a big job of unmaking going on.

Mr. Harriman says the government spends money carelessly. Mr. Harriman makes every dollar count.

President Taft eats only an apple for lunch. President Roosevelt used to eat malefactors of great wealth.

And now we are told the world is coming to an end in 1914. So why care about a tariff bill?

WETS AND DRYS AT WAR

THE ENTIRE POLICE FORCE IS UNDER INDICTMENT AT CLINTON, IND.

THIRTY ODD SALOONS WERE VOTED OUT

Threats of Violence Made Against Church and Minister—The Situation Now Deplorable in the Extreme.

Terre Haute, Ind., April 12.—Clinton, a mining town near here of 3,000 inhabitants, is in a state of disorder because of a bitter fight over the liquor question. Threats and counter threats are being made, and as a result of the indictment of the entire police force the town is without police protection from the lawless element.

The trouble had its beginning in the recent campaign and election in Vermillion county, in which the drys were victorious and which sounded the death knell of the thirty odd saloons in Clinton. The fight has grown more bitter as the contest progressed and now the town is facing a crisis.

Following the election in which the saloons were voted out, the chief of police and five patrolmen were indicted on the charge of withholding fees, which, the city prosecutor says, should have been turned into the city treasury. Those under indictment are Chief Reed and Patrolmen Hayes, Harrison, Vanhoosier, Foncannon and Ruttler.

Threats of violence have been freely circulated and one man who opposed the drys at the polls is reported to have said that a certain church would be wrecked with dynamite and that a minister was in danger of losing his life. Not only has the bitter feeling resulted in threats and estranged friends who took active part in the campaign on the two sides, but has started boycotts against various business men of the town.

There has also been some wild talk of the drys driving the saloons out of town without waiting for the due process of the law to carry into effect the decision of the voters. City Prosecutor H. B. Pike has made complaint that the police would not cooperate with him in trying to enforce the laws, and this was one of the causes leading up to the indictments. As it is, the town, with the police under indictment, is without any sort of protection.

The Dr. Camp Medical Company, the recognized expert Specialists of the West, in the treatment of chronic, complicated, deep seated diseases that resist the ordinary methods. You told me it would take five months to complete a cure, as the disease was situated in the spinal cord and had to be regrown. You are certainly master specialists of great skill.

PRISON FOR AN AGED MAN

KANSAN FOUND GUILTY OF INDUCING YOUNG GIRLS TO LEAVE HOME.

TO JOPLIN, MO., FOR IMMORAL PURPOSE

Conducted a Labor Paper at Shawnee, Oklahoma, for Two Years and Was Very Bitter in Attacks on Governor Haskell.

Pittsburg, Kas., April 12.—John Harvey Lynch, 60 years old, was Saturday afternoon adjudged guilty of inducing two young Franklin Camp girls to leave home and taking them to Joplin for immoral purposes. Lynch will be sent to the Kansas state penitentiary for a period of from one to five years at hard labor.

A form of insanity that caused lapses of memory, during which time he knew nothing of where he was or what he was doing was the plea made in the testimony of the defendant, who was on the stand the entire afternoon in his own defense. The defendant cried and made an attempt to become violent, crying, "I am not crazy, I am not crazy, they are trying to kill me."

Lynch stated that he had been engaged for two years in conducting a labor paper at Shawnee, Ok., and was active in the campaign against the nomination of Haskell.

He admitted that Haskell had his picture in prison stripes printed in several of the Oklahoma papers. Lynch admitted that he had served six years in the state penitentiary of Colorado for forgery, but claimed that he was but an accessory to the crime and that the man who forged the check was never tried.

BRIBERY WAS CHARGED

BY A MINISTER GROWING OUT OF BOOTLEGGING AT OKLAHOMA CITY.

BUT OFFICIALS HAVE NOW RETALIATED

Informations Charging Criminal Libel Have Been Filed, and the Outcome of the Case Will Be Eagerly Awaited.

Oklahoma City, Ok., April 12.—Charges and counter charges in the Ministerial Alliance of Shawnee, headed by the Rev. Mr. Bulgin, who is conducting a revival there, concerning alleged bribery on the part of city and county officials in bootlegging, reached an acute stage Saturday night, when informations, charging libel, were filed by the offended officers against the Rev. Mr. Bulgin. The informations were concurred in by seven different officials and represent the city and county.

Affidavits were read several nights ago in the pulpit by the minister purporting to come from people who admitted that hush money had been used in conducting bootlegging joints.

The officials complained of, it is said, are eager to have the matter brought to an issue and tried on its merits, while the ones making the complaint prefer to withhold their information until a proper investigation of the matters charged can be made.

Bellefontaine, Ohio, April 12.—Leaping from the operating table, where he was placed under the influence of an anesthetic preparatory to a surgical operation, Earl Hilbolt, a Big Four railroad fireman of this city, overpowered three surgeons and, rushing downstairs at his home, procured a revolver and kept the surgeons at bay for nearly an hour.

"Get out of here or I'll kill you!" said Hilbolt at every approach of the surgeons, and they were finally compelled to leave the house.

Hilbolt had been ill of appendicitis, having a second attack, and the surgeons had prepared to operate. He gave his consent and ether was being administered. The doctors say the patient had "reached the excitement stage when he made his sensational escape.

A BABY WEIGHS 120 LBS

INFANT AT PITTSBURG, PENNSLYVANIA, IS ONLY THREE MONTHS OF AGE.

ON EXHIBITION AT TEN DOLLARS A WEEK

Mother Weighs Only 200 Pounds and Finds It Difficult Matter to Handle the Infant—Case Is Remarkable.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 12.—"The biggest baby in the world" lives at 1617 Washington avenue, in this city. He is John Wilson Webb, 3 months old, and weighs 120 pounds. His mother, who weighs 200 pounds, finds it difficult to carry the baby jumbo around in her arms, but says that every day she handles him her strength increases.

She occasionally takes John Wilson across her lap and applies the maternal slipper, but confesses that it is hard work.

Whenever Mrs. Webb and her 120-pound baby appear upon the streets they cause a blockade of traffic.

John Wilson has been in almost perfect health since his birth. His only sickness was a mild case of measles, which reduced his weight merely a pound or two. He cries sometimes, but so loudly that persons in the vicinity who hear him imagine a riot is in progress.

Mrs. Wilson is a widow and her infant son contributes to her support. Sometimes he earns $10 a day in public exhibitions as "The Biggest Baby in the World." The father, who died recently, weighed about 250 pounds.

HIS HOME WAS BURNED

That of Theodore Bergfelder, Former Dry Goods Clerk Here.

While assisting in moving the furniture from her home, which was in flames, Mrs. Theodore Bergfelder, formerly Miss Clara Canning, of this city, was painfully and perhaps seriously injured by a piano falling on her, which rendered her helpless, at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

Today Mrs. W. W. Bolton, of this city, a sister, received a telephone message to come at once, as Mrs. Bergfelder's condition was serious.

Sparks from a defective flue set fire to Mr. Bergfelder's 8-room residence, two miles east of California, Mo., at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Only a few pieces of furniture were removed, the house being totally destroyed, with the greater portion of the contents. The loss is estimated to be in excess of $3,000.

This is the second fire which Mr. Bergfelder has experienced in the past week. Last Wednesday his barn caught fire and was totally destroyed, together with the contents.

SALOON THOUGHT NO. 119.

Prohibition in the South—What Business Men and Well Known Citizens Have to Say About Results of No-Saloon Policy.

The following group of tele grams and many others were received by Dr. Dickie at Milwaukee on the afternoon before the recent debate. They come from prominent people in southern prohibition territory and need no comment:

Atlanta, Ga., March 26, '09
Prof. Samuel Dickie,
Milwaukee, Wis.

I notice you are to debate tonight in behalf of prohibition. You will without doubt be told that it spreads poverty and devastation, municipally and otherwise. Georgia completed its first year without saloons January first. With prohibition and the panic the state's income was half a million dollars greater, Atlanta two hundred forty thousand dollars greater. Eight thousand less arrests. Atlanta real estate sold this month three thousand five hundred dollars front foot—the record. F. L. SEELY,
Publisher, The Georgian

Atlanta, Ga., March 26, '09.
Samuel Dickie,
Milwaukee, Wis.

Your telegram, inquiring about prohibition in Atlanta, referred to me for reply. Business conditions in Atlanta as good as in any southern city, wet or dry, and steadily improving. Real estate values greater than ever before and important improvements under way and projected. Market very active. Industry steadily improving and bank clearing increasing. Collections good. As to enforcement of law and effect on crime refer you to City Recorder N. R. Broyles.
W. G. COOPER,
Sec. Chamber of Commerce.

Montgomery, Ala., March 26, '09
Mr. Samuel Dickie,
Milwaukee, Wis.

Unquestionably prohibition, though disregarded in a few places in the state, is universally known to work for our good. People as a whole approve the law. B. B. COMER,
Governor of Alabama.

Please note, the governor of Alabama lives at MONTGOMERY, and in the article Mr. Rose (the WET mayor of Milwaukee), was supposed to write up, of the terrible results from prohibition in Alabama, which by a slip of a drunken cog in the liquor press bureau, was printed TWO DAYS BEFORE THE MAYOR REACHED ALABAMA, the article told of how the legislature was wrestling with the prohibition problem in BIRMINGHAM. Imagine how that poor fellow felt when he sobered up and realized what he had done.

We will venture that poor fellow has not had "one on me" since, as they are most merciless set of beings.

Please remember the saloons make it a rule to own the council, police and all officers of the cities, and it is real trouble to get these tools to observe their oath, and this accounts for the trouble of enforcing it as it should be in the cities, but after while these stool pigeons are ousted and men substituted, who have some regard for their oath, and then the city prospers RIGHT.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

TWO PERSONS ARE KILLED AND NINE INJURED IN A BURLINGTON WRECK.

COACH CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources For the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Two persons were killed and nine others were injured in the wreck of Burlington train No. 16, which left Tacoma, Wash., Saturday afternoon, east bound, on the Northern Pacific.

The train was derailed one mile west of Bristol between Clallum and Ellenburg, Saturday night.

Engineer Franklin J. Hammond, of Tacoma, and Fireman Johnson were killed.

The cause of the accident is unknown. Striking a sharp curve near Bristol at high speed, the train left the track and ran nearly its own length on the ties before coming to a stop.

The engine turned over and the mail car slid down the track at the edge of the river.

The Rate Cases Postponed.

A Jefferson City dispatch of the 11th says:

"The hearing of the injunction suit against the railroads, to prevent the threatened increase of passenger rates to 3 cents per mile, instituted by Circuit Attorney Jones, of St. Louis, at the request of Governor Hadley, has been deferred for several days, by agreement between the governor and Attorney Frank Hagerman, general counsel for the railroads involved.

"The governor announced the postponement tonight, after he had conferred with Mr. Hagerman over the long distance telephone. The order for the railroads to show cause why the temporary restraining order should not be made permanent was made returnable Monday, but the governor will notify Circuit Attorney Jones to arrange a continuance for several days, during which time the temporary injunction will remain in force."

Trainmen Change Around.

As a result of the changes brought about by the adoption of a new time card by the Missouri Pacific, Conductors Phil Adams, O. D. Rizer, J. H. Lafferty, Hiram Lewis and R. H. Beard will in future run as conductors on the following "swing" runs: Nos 623-4, 630-5, 622, 637 and 636; 37 and 38, No. 621.

Conductor Lewis was the first man to leave under the new regime, departing from Kansas City on train No. 623, via the Lexington branch, at 5:15 o'clock this morning. R. H. Beard was second, leaving for Tipton at [illegible] on No. 37, main line, to Kansas City, at 7:15 a. m.

Train Kills Three Little Girls.

The Illinois Central "flyer" struck and killed Anna, Mabel and Ruby, aged 7, 8 and 14, respectively, daughters of Fred Foldorn, four miles west of Dubuque, Ia., Sunday.

The girls were walking on the track toward the approaching train, but on account of high wind they had their heads down and did not see the train.

When the engineer realized that the girls did not hear the train it was too late to stop.

Train Blown From Track.

Passenger train No. 14, east bound, Chicago and Alton, was derailed near Mayview, six miles west of Higginsville, at noon Sunday.

The accident was caused by the terrific windstorm raging at the time, which literally lifted the coaches off the track and rolled them down an embankment.

The passengers were terribly shaken up, but, miraculously no one was seriously injured.

THIRSTY, HANKERING FOR WET SPELL, HAD GREAT TIME THIS MORNING.

ST. LOUIS SALOONS OPEN FROM 12 TO 1

The "Canning" Industry Was Rushed to the Limit—Barkeepers Got Frisky and Had a Picnic With Customers.

St. Louis, Mo., April 12.—In every section of St. Louis in which beer is bucketed joy reigned supreme between midnight and 1 o'clock this morning.

Through the construction of the law by the new excise commissioner, Henry S. Caulfield, the saloon keeper again came into his own (and, incidentally, others), and was permitted to open his doors to the thirsty who had not prepared against the lid by laying in a stock of wet goods at home.

The crowds outside the doors of saloons in the residence districts began to gather about 11:45 o'clock and steadily grew and increased in proportion until lights flashed in the upper stories, indicating the awakening of the proprietor or bartender.

In several cases the bartender came down stairs a minute or two before 12 and peered at the thirsty waiting for him to turn the key, and encouraged them by pointing to the clock, smiling and indicating on his fingers the minutes which would have to roll by before he could admit the clamorers for abatement of their thirst.

Only a few of the downtown saloons were opened.

MANIAC DANGLED IN MID-AIR

Hospital Attendants Prevented a Woman's Suicide.

New York, April 12.—A thrilling struggle to save a mad woman from suicide took place last night on the ledge of the fifth story window of the Hospital for Women.

Mrs. Hickey, aged 23, who had been a patient for several weeks, became suddenly insane and in the temporary absence of the nurse thrust her feet through the heavy plate glass window panes in her ward. Through the jagged hole thus made she pushed her body, cutting herself frightfully, and crept to the edge of the sill, sixty feet above the sidewalk.

She was about to jump when Dr. Cranston Conklin and Miss McDonald, a nurse, who had heard the crash of glass, caught her by the arms. Mrs. Hickey struggled, screamed and hit, but the doctor and nurse held on. Other doctors and nurses came to their aid and sheets were twisted about the woman, who was dangling in the air resisting rescue with insane fury.

The doctors and nurses, five in number, could do nothing except to hold the woman. Some one in the crowd that had gathered in the street below turned in an alarm and the fire apparatus came to the scene.

For a few minutes it was a question whether the firemen or the woman would win the battle. A policeman ran up the stairs to the fifth floor and opened the window opposite the ladder. Watching his chance he grasped Mrs. Hickey's feet and tied her ankles. After another struggle she finally was pushed through the window, feet first, and carried to the operating room. Mrs. Hickey was strapped in an ambulance, taken to Bellevue hospital and placed in the prison ward, charged with attempting suicide.

GET BIG DOLLAR DINNER

TRULY SOMETHING DOING IN THIS LINE

The Lines Between Kansas City and Chicago Are Giving Lavish Meals as a Form of the Passenger Rate Dispute.

The great table d'hote war is on Once it was a rate war—a dollar or two to Chicago—but that has given way to the meal for a quarter its cost, with drinks, cigars, cigarettes, bon bons and flowers thrown in. It's great living these days, if you have business riding between Kansas City and Chicago.

The one feature of modern passenger train service that is not syndicated and in which there is no community of interest is in the dining car, says the Kansas City Star. Competing lines have been able to unite on a good many popositions of mutual interest. Schedules are adopted by agreement and special rates are made the same way, and there are agreements regulating speed, and establishing uniform methods for handling many classes of traffic. But there is real, actual war between the Kansas City-Chicago lines in dining car service.

When the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad shortened its line between Kansas City and Chicago and put the southwest limited train in service, the other lines, including the Alton, sat up and took notice.

The St. Paul was the first road to serve a table d'hote dinner for $1 on its dining cars. It proved a very strong drawing card and the Burlington established a similar service on its fast Chicago train.

Now the Alton has entered the field and last night commenced to serve a table d'hote dinner on the "Red Hummer," leaving Kansas City at 6 o'clock for Chicago. The price is $1 for the meal, and, according to Geo. J. Charlton, passenger agent for the road, the meal costs the railway exactly $2.25, not including the service.

The menu card, which in itself costs 6 cents apiece, affords the choice of a dry martini or Manhattan cocktail. Then follow five courses, concluding with a benedictine or apricot brandy. Then there is a cigar that costs the Alton 16 cents apiece. There is a decorated cigar case, especially made for the Alton and costing 11½ cents each, and a bon bon box furnished by Guenther at a cost of 14½ cents each.

To load the cigarette box with Turkish cigarettes and the bon bon box with sweets costs 9 cents more. Thus there is an expense to the railway of 70 cents before food and drink are considered. Here is what the Alton, for instance, gives you for $1 while the table d'hote war is on:

Manhattan Dry Martini
Caviar on Toast.
Oysters Bourguignonne.
Olives Radishes Celery
Green Sea Turtle Consomme
Baked Whitefish, Stuffed
Cucumbers Potatoes a la Duchess
Boiled Sugar Cured Ham
Champagne Sauce
Baked Philadelphia squab
on Carrerole
Roast Prize Native Beef au Jus
Roast Young Turkey
with Dressing
New Potatoes in Cream
New Spinach with Egg
New Asparagus—Hollandaise
Orange Ice.
Fresh Endive Salad a la Alton
Strawberry Shortcake
Tutti Frutti Ice Cream
Assorted Cake
Rocquefort and Camembert Cheese
Toasted Wafer or Plain Crackers
Coffee
Benedictine Apricot Brandy.
Cigars Cigarettes Bon Bons

To the cost of the food, drinks, cigars, cigarettes, bon bons and flowers, must be added the cost of service. A dining car carries a steward, three cooks and four waiters, costing in wages $18 a day. The car, with its equipment of silver and linen represents $18,000. The interest on that must be counted. Then there is the maintenance of the car, about $1,200 a year. All these items considered mean that the meal costs the long suffering railroad somewhere between $3 and $4 each. When will they stop? Well, one of the roads is now considering adding champagne to the $1 dinner. It's great right now, if you have to travel between Chicago and Kansas City.

WIFE'S WANDERING MIND

WAS RESTORED BY THE SIGHT OF HER HUSBAND IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

NOT ABLE TO GIVE A CLEW TO IDENTITY

Swooned Again in His Arms but Upon Recovery Was Able to Go Home—The Case Is Truly a Remarkable One.

Washington, April 12.—The sight of the face of the man she had loved for years and to whom she is wedded restored Mrs. Ernest Whitehead, 30 years, old to consciousness, after a lapse of memory for ten hours.

The woman lay on a cot in Casualty hospital, with physicians and the nurses gathered about her. The husband entered the ward and walked toward the cot where his wife lay, staring blankly at the ceiling.

The noise of footsteps attracted the woman's attention. She looked at the man. A puzzled expression came on her face. Then with a glad cry of recognition, she leaped from the bed and threw her arms about Whitehead's neck, crying hysterically. Physicians caught the woman in their arms as she fainted and carried her back to the cot. Restoratives were administered and she regained consciousness in a few minutes. The swoon, the physicians say, was caused by the sudden return of her senses and the joy of seeing her husband.

Although she had been unable to tell her name and address five minutes before, Mrs. Whitehead began to talk intelligently as soon as she was revived from the fainting spell.

"Where am I?" she asked, and then followed many questions concerning what had happened to her since she went on her flight to the land of dreams. The case was the most puzzling that has come to the attention of the physicians at the Casualty hospital in years.

Mrs. Whitehead is the wife of Ernest Whitehead, employed at the Willard hotel, who lives at 1102 New York avenue northwest. The couple are happy in their apartment and have a baby who was born two years ago. Since that time Mrs. Whitehead has suffered frequent lapses of memory for a few minutes. She ascribed the trouble to nervousness and did not seek medical attention, thinking it would leave her in a few months.

She left her apartment in the morning and went to a number of department stores, after which she visited a friend living in Anacostia. She had luncheon at the home of her friend and started for home. Mrs. Whitehead walked the short distance to the waiting station at the Anacostia end of the Pennsylvania avenue bridge and boarded a car.

She stepped upon the rear platform and then became dizzy. Catching hold of a support, she tried to keep from falling, but swooned and fell to the street. She was carried into the station and the ambulance surgeon thought she was a victim of drugs.

Hospital physicians finding their efforts to restore the patient futile, ordered her admitted to a private ward. She was taken to the hospital about 1 p. m., and before night a dozen physicians, including nerve specialists, saw the woman. She remained as she was when admitted.

When Mrs. Whitehead did not return at nightfall her husband began a search, and learned she had visited a friend in Anacostia. The friend told him she had started for the car, and all trace of her was lost. Whitehead at last appealed to the police and learned a woman whose identity had not been ascertained was at Casualty hospital. He went to the hospital and the dramatic scene followed. Shortly after 11 p. m. Whitehead and his wife went home in a cab.

ORATOR AND STATESMAN

ON THIS DAY, IN THE YEAR 1777, HENRY CLAY WAS BORN IN VIRGINIA.

WAS THE FATHER OF ELEVEN CHILDREN

Three Times He Ran for Presidency, But, Like Mr. Bryan, Was Defeated—Eloquence Made Him a True Leader.

Richmond, Va., April 12.—On this day, the year 1777, in Hanover county, Virginia, Henry Clay, the famous orator and statesman, was born. John Clay, his father, was a Baptist clergyman. His mother was educated at the district school. After the death of the Rev. John Clay, his widow married Captain Henry Watkins, of Richmond, Virginia, who is said to have been a good stepfather to the boy.

At an early age young Henry became clerk in a retail store in Richmond. Later he secured a position as copyist in the office of the court of high chancery. Although a rawboned, awkward youth, pleasant but not handsome, and clothed in homespun, he soon gained the respect of his associates, for he was a very clever talker, and he devoted his hours of leisure to study and reading.

His good qualities attracted attention of the chancellor of the court, who made his his amanuensis, and thus he was for four years on intimate terms with his superior, who directed his readings, advised him to grammatical studies, and by his conversation shaped his thoughts and principles.

He determined to become a lawyer, and entered the office of the attorney-general of Virginia, where he remained one year before he obtained a license from the judge of the court of appeals to practice this profession.

His parents moving to Kentucky, he followed and settled in Lexington, practicing law, and becoming a favorite with the best people. Such was his skill as a pleader that it was said that no murderer, of whatever degree, who was defended by him, was ever sentenced to be hanged.

For a while he was attorney for the commonwealth. He married Lucretia Hart in April, 1799, and was subsequently blessed with eleven children.

Becoming celebrated for his eloquence he grew active in politics. His popularity was at first affected by his advocacy of the emancipation of slaves, a policy which he stood by throughout his lifetime, but his active participation in the campaign against the alien and sedition laws restored his popularity and he was elected to the Kentucky legislature in 1803.

In 1806 he was appointed senator to fill an unexpired term and also again in 1809-10 under the same circumstance. At the expiration of his term he was elected congressman, and was elected speaker by a large majority, though he was not prohibited from taking part in debates.

He resigned from congress in 1813 to become member of the commission appointed by the president to negotiate peace with Great Britain. He returned to America and was elected to congress again, declining the posts of minister to Russia and secretary of war. He was returned to congress several times and served fourteen years as speaker, and not one of his decisions was ever reversed. He was elected speaker one year by a vote of 140 to 7.

His eloquence made him a leader in all important debates and he was constantly before the public's eye. In 1829 he was defeated for the presidency by a large majority, but was made secretary of war by the president elected. In 1831 he was elected to the United States senate. He ran for the presidency in 1833 and was defeated by Gen. Jackson. His tariff speeches attracted much attention: he was a strong protectionist. His clash with Calhoun on the slavery question has gone into history.

Clay was an abolitionist, Calhoun the ablest champion of slavery. He was defeated in his third race for the presidency in 1844. Such was his popularity that in his sixty-seventh year when he was forced to offer his mansion for sale to meet certain financial obligations, money poured in upon from anonymous donors more than sufficient to end his embarrassments. In 1848 he was again elected to the senate.

He became an active advocate of the anti-slavery compromise, and the Mason-Dixon line and declared against secession from the union. Shortly before his death, on June 29, 1852, Mr. Clay said, "If anyone desires to know the leading paramount object of my public life, the preservation of the union will furnish him with the key."

Women's Secrets

There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that ninety-eight per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be remarkable if the cases treated were numbered by hundreds only. But when that record applies to the treatment of more than half-a-million women, in a practice of over 40 years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases.

Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. All replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing or advertising whatever, upon them. Write without fear as without fee, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Prest., Buffalo, N. Y.

SPENT $500 FOR A WEDDING TROSSEAU

Was to Have Been Married December 16, But On the 15th Bride-to-Be Received a Letter Declaring Engagement Off.

Freeport, Ill., April 12.—Miss Cora Healy, the belle of Freeport, jilted on the eve of her wedding to Joseph Sneed, a wealthy young ranch owner of Texas, seeks financial balm for the laceration of her heart strings in the sum of $15,000. The suit was filed in Amarillo, Texas.

While on a visit to friends in Texas during the summer vacation last year, she became acquainted with young Sneed, the acquaintance soon ripening into love, Miss Healy says, and Mr. Sneed proposed marriage and was accepted. The date for the wedding was set for December 16, 1908.

Miss Healy, on her return, announced her engagement to her family and friends. She spent $500 preparing her wedding trousseau, she says. Her fiance was expected to arrive in Freeport a day or so before the wedding. On December 15, the day before the wedding, Sneed, in Texas, wrote his fiancee asking a postponement of the marriage.

Communications by wire and mail followed, and Sneed finally declared he did not love Miss Healy and that the engagement was broken.

"This has indeed been a Good Friday to me. God only knows what I have suffered, but I stood it for my father and mother.

"I am innocent of any wrong in connection with my husbad's death. I never wronged him in my life. I slaved for him, raised chickens to help him, raked hay with him to save expenses, and I loved him more than my life. His memory is as dear to me today as anything I have left on earth."

Real Independence In Owning Your Home

TO live in a home that is all your own is real independence.

It's pleasant to know that you have a comfortable home when you have grown old and unable to work, and it's a duty toward your family.

You who think that only the rich can afford to own their homes are clinging to a mistaken idea.

Reading the For Sale Columns of the Democrat-Sentinel proves that this is all wrong. Read them and be convinced how cheaply you can buy a home.

Here is a man who must sell his home on account of sickness. Another must sell quickly because he needs quick cash. You can arrange for small monthly payments, too.

There are many concerns who make a specialty of selling homes on easy payments. Use Democrat-Sentinel Want Ads for economy; the best bargains and for your own good.

People past middle life usually have some kidney or bladder disorder that saps the vitality, which is naturally lower in old age. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects urinary troubles, stimulates the kidneys, and restores strength and vigor. It cures uric acid troubles by strengthening the kidneys so they will strain out the uric acid that settles in the muscles and joints, causing rheumatism.—Arlington Pharmacy.

STEALS COAL; IS DISCHARGED

New York Judge Moved by Pitiful Case of Destitution.

New York, April 12.—James Finley, a boy of 17, was arraigned before Magistrate Crane Saturday charged with stealing 6 cents' worth of coal from the railroad yards in Mott Haven. The widowed mother of the boy said he went after the coal because it was cold in their home. She and her children, she said, were on the verge of starvation.

The magistrate, apparently affected by the pitiful case of need, discharged the boy, remarking:

"Young man, I am going to discharge you; but I want to tell you something. If you want to steal, wait until you are president of a railroad. Then you can steal anything you want and have no fear of punishment. Until then you must never look at a railroad car, or you might be arrested."

Camps for Consumptives.

Mrs. Susanne Robbins, who had charge of the first day camp established for consumptives in this country, declared at a recent meeting of trained nurses in New York that it was not necessary to wait for money before establishing such camps in the larger cities.

"We started our camp in Boston without any money," she said. "The next day a woman gave us $300, and before we had used that up there was more to take its place."

In describing the joy of the patients at being able to go to some place near their homes so that their friends could come to see them she said:

"No one knows what sick people suffer from homesickness when taken where they cannot see those they love and are accustomed to have around them."

According to Miss Robbins there are 67 camps for consumptives in Germany and only 15 in this country.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE MAGNET.

Is Now an Indispensable Instrument in the Workshop.

The magnet that boys of yesterday used for a toy to-day as men they are employing as a useful instrument in their worshops. Within the last few years particularly, as W. Frank McClure points out, it is being adapted to handle many shapes of metal, all forms of iron and steel, from iron dust to scraps, or small junk to weights of 20,000 pounds. In fact, the world's largest magnet will lift as much as 50,000 pounds. The magnet is employed to break up imperfect castings, to hold sheets of metal in position while they are being riveted in the building of ships, to lift a "sow and pigs" at the furnaces, also as a gigantic broom to sweep both the large and small pieces of iron, and in numerous other ways.

A half dozen kegs of nails may be seen traveling through the air, held by magnetic lines of forces despite the wooden covering of the kegs. Even two or three men are sometimes lifted from the ground, their feet resting on a metal sheet which is firmly held by the magnet. The flat style of magnet is available for picking up metal sheets, from two to six at a time, one under the other, the number depending upon their thickness. These may be dropped by the magnet one at a time at the desire of the operator provided he is clever in adjusting the switch at precisely the right intervals.

LIKED GREAT AMERICAN GAME.

Indian and Chinaman Both Capable of Playing Good Poker.

While I was in the store a fat old Indian entered. He had short hair, wore overalls and except for his color was not much different in dress and appearance from a white workingman, says Clifton Johnson in "An Old Village of the Pacific Coast" in Outing. The clerk introduced him as the best sheep shearer in the country. He shook hands and said, "Me good man! You good man?"

In the season he had about fifty other Indians working under him, got five dollars a day himself and two dollars for his wife, who did the cooking for the gang. The wealth he acquired did not stick to him. He gambled it away. Gambling was a common recreation among the villagers, and the place supported four "blind pigs," or unlicensed saloons. There were always loafers hanging about the porches and a noisy crowd inside playing pool. One of the Capistrano experts at poker was a Chinaman who had a ranch just outside the village. He lived in a dirty little hut there and kept his horse under a pepper tree with only the shelter afforded by the leafage. For ten miles around the people depended on him for vegetables. Some of the poorest families in the village bought of him, rather than take the trouble to raise their own vegetables, though they had the finest kind of land right at their doors.

"He can speak hardly three words of English," I was told, "but he'll sit down and play poker all right with any of us. Perhaps he'll lose $50 or more at a single sitting and not go home till the small hours of the morning, and yet he'll be at his work that day as usual without batting an eye."

GAMBLE AT FRENCH LICK

GOVERNOR OF INDIANA HAS INSTRUCTED THAT INVESTIGATION BE MADE.

ALMOST ANY KIND OF A GAME YOU WANT

The Rooms Are In Small Hotels Just Outside the Land Limits of the French Lick and West Baden Hostelries.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 12.—Governor Marshall, before leaving for a trip to New York, instructing the prosecuting attorney for Orange and Washington counties to investigate the reports of gambling at French Lick, and if he finds them true, to proceed against the proprietors of the games.

Under the direction of Governor Hanly, the present governor's republican predecessor, the games at French Lick were raided. It is alleged they have been reopened in elaborate gambling rooms, which are crowded every evening by fashionably dressed men and women, who play roulette, faro and stud poker.

The gambling rooms, it is reported to the governor, are in small hotels just outside the land limits described in the charters of the West Baden and French Lick hotels.

Thomas Taggart, former chairman of the national democratic committee, is owner of the latter resort. Governor Marshall is a democrat.

THE NEWEST IN SPRING SUITINGS AT LOEWER'S, TAILOR.

THEN THE COURT "SMILED"

But Higher Court Said It Was Not Reversible Error.

During the course of a trial the defendant requested the court to have one Ananias Goodwin sworn and put under the rule, whereupon the court smiled. Defendant noted an exception to the smile and expression.

Ananias was not tendered as a witness, nor does it appear what testimony it was intended to elicit.

In Bellamy vs. State, 47 Southern Reporter, 868, the supreme court of Florda remarked that it was impossible to place itself in a position to intelligently consider the harmful effect, if any, of this slight lapse from severe judicial decorum had Ananias been before the jury as a witness.

It is reasonably certain, however, that had he been presented to the jury the Biblical forbear of the name would speedily have been brought to the attention of any juror so ignorant as to be unaware of it, and that the smile was natural, even if not justified or excusable.

DOG SAVES FOUR LIVES

Left to Die in Burning House by Those It Rescued.

Jackson, Mich., April 12.—The family dog saved the lives early Saturday of Joseph Sinkbinder, his wife and their two children when their home three miles south of the city was burned.

By persistent barking the animal aroused Mr. and Mrs. Sinkbinder, who found the room where their two children slept to be in flames.

Mrs. Sinkbinder was painfully burned rescuing one child and the father pulled the second son out through a window. The dog was by mistake left in the house and cremated.

BASILICA OF ST. AGNES

Interesting Ceremony Today Two Miles From Rome.

Rome, April 12.—An interesting ceremony took place today in the basilica of St. Agnes, two miles outside of Rome. The building stands over the catacombs, where, among others, the body of St. Agnes is buried.

While Pius IX, April 12, 1855, was receiving there the college of the propaganda, the floor gave way and all present were precipitated into the catacombs twenty feet below. Fortunately, nobody was injured,, this being by some persons considered a miracle.

The basilica is beautifully decorated. A high mass was celebrated, the Te Deum was intoned and the benediction was bestowed upon the members of the college of the propaganda. A number of American students were present.

Baked Toast.

Pare the crust from slices of stale bread and toast quickly. As each is done scrape off every sign of burn or scorch; dip in pan of boiling salted water and lay in deep dish that will bear the fire. When all are in pour over the toast a quart of hot milk—half cream if you can get—in which has been dissolved a heaping tablespoonful of butter and a teaspoonful of salt. Set the dish in a dripping pan of hot water and put in the oven. Bake covered for half an hour, then brown the top layer slightly. Should the milk be all absorbed before the time is up add a little, boiling hot. Toast prepared in this way has a rich creamy flavor the ordinary "dip toast" never acquires.

Prune Pudding.

One-third pound prunes, one-fourth box gelatine, one-fourth cup cold water, one cup water in which prunes were cooked, three-fourths cup sugar, two tablespoons lemon juice.

Pick over, wash and soak the prunes for several hours in cold water and cook them in the same water until tender. Remove them, stone, and cut into small pieces. Reduce the water to one cup. Soak the gelatine in the hot water and dissolve with the hot prune water; add sugar and lemon juice and strain over prunes. Pour into a mold wet with cold water and chill. Stir occasionally to prevent prunes from settling. Serve with cream.

HOPED TO BECOME FOOTLIGHT FAVORITE

Girls Stage Struck and Were Lured to New York by the Advertisement of a Dancing Master Who Promised Much.

New York, April 12.—The Rev. B. C. Warren, pastor of St. John's Methodist church of Newburg, N. Y., has arrived here to take charge of his 18-year-old daughter, Eliza, and a companion, Dora Waelde, also 18 years old, daughter of Dr. C. H. Waelde, an eye specialist of Newburg.

The girls became stage struck and were lured to the city by the advertisement of a dancing master who pointed out that a course in his school was the easiest way to succeed behind the footlights.

Before leaving home, the girls left a letter for the Rev. Dr. Warren, explaining the situation and saying that they had gone to New York. The pastor lost no time in dispatching a telegram to detectives here and the stage struck girls were stopped when they left their train at the Grand Central station.

"Hello, Dora," said one of the detectives.

"We don't know you," answered one of the girls and they started to brush past the officers.

"But," said the detectives, "we know you," and they called them by name. The girls had only $2.50 between them. They will go home.

A CRAP GAME DREAM

Wins Acquittal for Negro Who Shot His Wife.

Chicago, Ill., April 12.—Because he shot his wife while dreaming that he was "shooting up" a crap game, Albert Allen, a negro, was acquitted of the charge of attempted murder by a jury in Judge Clifford's court.

Mrs. Allen was shot in the back more than a month ago while asleep in their home at 4858 Dearborn street. "As I remember," said Allen, "the night my wife was shot I had a dream that I was shooting craps with a crown of men down near Twenty-sixth street. I thought I had made a couple of passes when one of the players grabbed the money and started to run. I whipped out my revolver and began to make smoke around that colored fellow. That's all I remember."

"NERVY" MILWAUKEE GIRLS

Start Crusade Against Men on Windy Corners During Storms.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 12—The heavy wind has stirred up something more than a wave of dust and a flood of complaints against the weather man.

It has started a crusade against men hanging around windy corners to watch women when a gust of wind would cause a skirt to flop more wildly than usual, disclosing more or less hosiery and lingerie.

This has aroused a storm of protest among shop girls and stenographers, who will ask the women's clubs of the city to join in an appeal to the police.

Glen Cove, L. I., April 12.—Charles J. Dayton, a chauffeur, 27 years old, shot his wife, Anna Miller Dayton, and then killed himself.

His failure to provide a home for his wife is given by the young woman as the cause of the double crime.

For a month past, she says, he has been suggesting that they die together, as he feared that he would never be able to establish a home for her. Mrs. Dayton's condition is critical.

FREED ON OWN TESTIMONY

Jury Declares Lewis Holle Did Not Kill Albert Rutter.

Carthage, Mo., April 12.—"Not guilty of murdering Albert Rutter" was the verdict Lewis Holle won Saturday evening by his boldness in going on the stand in his own defese and swearing he saw Albert Rutter shot in this city on the night of November 4 1908, but did not know who fired the fatal bullet.

Rutter's divorced wife had testified that she saw Holle do the shooting and then run away. The line of defense which Holle was to adopt was not known until he took the stand. The jury acquitted him on the second ballot.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments. The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well
